AIMS:
Fashion Design and Technology in Year 10 is developed to:
• Provide students with a specific understanding of textile techniques both as an industry and as an activity
• Develop knowledge of standards and requirements which underpin employment in the fashion and textile industry
• To develop an understanding of sustainability practices
• Provide students with life skills for a variety of applications
• Develop students’ creative abilities through fashion designing, creative bra designs and revamping recycling products to create new one

COURSE OUTLINE:
The course comprises ‘hands-on’ learning activities, implementing creative ideas and provides understanding and knowledge of the fashion and clothing industry, as well as providing understanding and knowledge which can be implemented for life. Students will learn a variety of embellishment techniques, fashion design and drawing, as well as revamping/recycling old clothing and items into modern pieces.

COURSE CONTENT:
Semester 1:
Term 1 – Logos and Labels:
• Knowledge, understanding of logos and labels
• Laws relating to garment labelling
• Consumer rights and responsibilities in regard to garment labelling/purchasing
• Sew components
• Costing

Term 2: Creative ‘Moi’
• Study of body image, media and impact on teens
• Study of current fashion trends, colours and designs
• Students use of creative flair and skills to revamp/recycle ‘op shop’ or old clothes to develop an entirely new article incorporating the use of plastic
• Understanding of sustainability and impact of fashion on local and global environment

Semester 2:
Term 3 - Bravo Bras
• Using creative design process to create ideas for bras
• Creating artistic, embellished bras
• Using a variety of embellishments
• Develop a process journal

Term 4 - Fashion Design:
• Fashion drawing
• Designing
• Colour understanding
• Fabric suitability
• Creating own fashion label
• Creating a storyboard

AIMS: